This is the first design done from the suggestions received from the newsgroup. She is Arthurian with an over one face that is so real you can see her eyelids. This double sided graph gives the instructions for her to be stitched to the right or left or both as a pair. Also included is another legend for her gown to be stitched in blues so that it isn't a Christmas design. Stitched without wings she would look like a floating Lady of the Lake. Stitch count 210 x 261. Design area 13 1/8" x 16 3/8". This is for the pattern only, not a kit.
