I rated it 4 stars only because there are a lot of sports designs, which I will never use (football, basketball, soccer, skateboarding). There are several designs that say (and pertain) to BUGS DINER (of course you don't have to embroider those sayings). The patterns are in color and there are photos in color of the finished product. Suggestions on what you can use the designs for (i.e. pillows, clock, wall hanging, picture frames, coasters etc.) are also given.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Looney tunes characters in crosstitchBy huntress (Robyn U.)There are many patterns in this book including Bugs, Tweety and Sylvester, TAZ, and Marvin the Martian. The directions are color coded and easy to follow. There are 80 pages of stitching patterns that can be used for many useful purposes, such as t-shirts,pillowcases,clock faces and so much more. If you like to stitch, you'll like this book.

Anyone with a fondness for Looney Tunes characters will enjoy stitching, displaying, and giving away these colorful designs, suitable for every room in the house. Forty-five easy-to-follow cross stitch projects include a Tasmanian Devil basketball player pillow, A Bad-Hare Day! mirror, and even a Marvin the Martian remote control cover, just to name a few. These fanciful projectsfrom kitchen dcor to home office itemswill spark every stitchers imagination and
